Description
This Spectacular French art deco hall tree is from the 1930’s. Constructed of square aluminum tubing, the stand has a hat rack on top, eight “lollipop” coat hangers, a mirror for checking your tie, a mirrored shelf for keys and separate receptacles for canes and umbrellas. Each umbrella receptacle has a removable black tray to catch water. The aluminum has been polished to a bright shine and the mirrors replaced. A magnificent machine age statement for your entrance, the hall tree is 73” high, 41 1/4” wide and 12” deep.
