Gilbert Rohde American Art Deco Console East Indian Laurel

Reference:

MPD-000092
Description
Gilbert Rohde American art deco console which folds out and converts to a dining table in 1934 for the Herman Miller Furniture Company. It is number 3435 from his East Indian Laurel group, The console is linked at the base with three chrome steel bars . It is 28” high 56” long and 16” deep (32” when the top is flipped). The table has been refinished and is in excellent condition. See other East Indian Laurel pieces on our website.

Main Image:

DetailsPeriod: ART DECO
Category: Consoles

Condition: Ecxcellent

Dealer Ref: AF229

- Height: 28

- Lenght : 56

- Width: 16 or 32

Dealer: Modernism Gallery

More InfoDesigner: Gilbert Rohde
Country of Origin: United States

Modernism Gallery

Recently Viewed

- Gilbert Rohde American Art Deco Clock with Air Guide

- Blogs
- Shows
- News
- Shipping
- FAQ
- SiteMap
- About Us
- Terms
- Login