

Mid Century Kerosene Style Fixture.

Reference:

MPD-006856

Description

Circa 1960 This is a cool and kitschy mid-century reproduction of an American classic, the kerosene pull down fixture. The original iteration of this fixture design would have been a kerosine lit fixture. This mid-century reproduction is evocative of the classic American home environment. The fixture features a burnt orange wavy glass shade, and cast brass details of eagles. It is fitted with crystals around the bottom of the light - this would be a funky addition to an eclectic living space.
