

Art Deco Czechoslovakian Glass Necklace Earring Set

Reference:

MPD-004766

Description

This is an outstanding example of 1920's Art Deco Czechoslovakian jewelry. The necklace is comprised of a bevy of triangular beveled faceted glass in beautiful Cerulean blue. Each piece is painstakingly prong set. The focal point of this necklace is a large 2" long x 1" high octagonal cut faceted piece of glass. The earrings are simple squares, but work perfectly with the necklace. There are a few fleabites here and there, but nothing detracts from the beauty of this set. The spring closure is marked Czechoslovakia. The earrings are screw-backs. The measurements are as follows: The length of the necklace is 19" The earrings measure 1/2" square.
