

French Art Deco Mahogany Occasional Table

Reference:

MPD-000563

Description

This special French art deco occasional table is from the 1930's. The table is constructed from figured mahogany and mahogany veneers. Supported by four legs with beveled tops, the table has two levels. The top has four quadrants of book matched stripe mahogany veneers. In the shelf below, there is a small cabinet very cleverly hidden. The table has been refinished and is 24" high and 21" each side and has enough presence to be a coffee table or a side table.
