

Donald Deskey for AMODEC American Art Deco Vanity

Reference:

MPD-000197

Description

Donald Deskey (1884 - 1989) designed this three piece vanity for his own company, AMODEC (American Modern Decoration Company) in 1935. Made of Australian Laurel (Oriental Walnut) with burl drawer fronts, mirror trim and feet on the bench, the vanity sports bright nickel pulls on the drawer handles. The three pieces are in excellent condition and restored to their original state of 75 years ago. The vanity retains the distinctive blue and silver AMODEC label and the bench is covered in faux chamois leather. The vanity measures 25 ½" high, 54" wide and 18" deep, the bench 16 ½" high, 21" wide and 15" deep and the mirror is 33 ¼" x 24"
