

Keramis Belgian Art Deco Geometric Enameled Ceramic Bowl

Reference:

MPD-000234

Description

This unusually large and beautiful Belgian art deco bowl was designed in 1928 by Georges Tecqmenne (1908 - 1997) for art director Charles Catteau (1860 - 1966) in his "Atelier de Fantasia" for the Belgian firm, Boch Freres. The bowl is decorated with geometric flowers in blue, turquoise and black on a white craqueleure ground. Measuring 13" in diameter and standing 9 ½ " high, it is marked "Keramis, Made in Belgium", "D1337" and incised "860" and "3K".
