

20th Century American Carved Polychrome Wood Seated Figure

Reference:

MPD-006419

Description

This is a life-size mid-20th century carved wood female Santos figure with a painted finish. The figure does show some age wear to the surfaces and the left hand is lost. The remaining right hand removes or rotates. Portions have been over painted. She is carved in a sitting position and does not retain her clothing. The feet are created with carved sandals.
