

Early 20th Century Bronze Polychromed Theater Chandelier

Reference:

MPD-000830

Description

This is an early 20th century bronze flush mount theater ceiling fixture with all over poly chrome details and white bent glass panels within. The light is produced from the theater light bulbs that surround the fixture and from within the bent glass panels. The fixture is all original than the wiring has been updated. The patina is wonderful but does have expected losses due to the age. The light measure 24 inches in diameter and the drop is 19 inches.
