Degue

Image:

In 1928 Edouard Cazaux, (1889 - 1974), an artist, sculptor and ceramic designer joined forces with David Gueron, founder of Christalleries de Compiegne. The company was called "Verrerie d' art Degue". They opened a retail outlet in 1930 in Paris on Rue Druout which existed until 1939. The company participated in the decoration of the steamship Normandy, launched in 1935. Their glass was signed "Degue".

Country of origin:

France

Life Span:

1889-1974

Link to Modernism Items:

- Degue'

Select One:

Manufacturer

General Tags:

- Modernism
- art deco

- French Art Deco
- Degue
- French Art Deco sculptures