Helen Elizabeth Phillips Hayter

Image:

Born in Fresno, CA on March 3, 1913. Phillips studied sculpture at the CSFA under Stackpole and Piazzoni. A traveling scholarship from that school allowed for one year in Europe. After returning to San Francisco in 1938, she executed fountain figures on Treasure Island for the GGIE. Phillips moved to NYC in 1941 and lived there until her death on Jan. 22, 1995. Exh: CSFA, 1932 (prize); SFAA, 1936-48; Copley Foundation 1958 (award). In: St Joseph's Church crucifix (Sacramento); Maritime Museum (SF); SFMA. She married famous printmaker Stanley William Hayter at Studio 17 and they were later married. The image above is of the two artists in their studio.

Country of origin:

United States

Life Span:

1913 - 1995

Link to Modernism Items:

- Helen Phillips

Select One:

Designer

General Tags:

- Helen Phillips Hayter
- William Hayter