Ignatz Sahula-Dycke

Image:

An immigrant from Bohemia, Sahula-Dycke studied at the Chicago Academy of Fine Art, was a member of the Chicago Art Directors Club, and exhibited at the Art Institute of Chicago, where he won a prize in 1926. He later moved to Dallas, Texas, where he became the Art Director for an advertising agency.

Country of origin:

Czech Republic

Life Span:

1900 - 1982

Link to Modernism Items:

- Ignatz Sahula-Dycke

Select One:

Designer

General Tags:

- Ignatz Shaula-Dycke
- Orientalist