Maurice Louis Legendre

Image:

Maurice Legendre was a noted French impressionist and sculptor, especially known for his Parisian and London landmark scenes. He was a pupil of Robert Couturier and Marcel Grimond. In 1954, Legendre won the Blumenthal prize and in 1965 he was awarded the Brantôme prize for sculpture.

Country of origin:

France

Life Span:

1928

Link to Modernism Items:

- Maurice Legendre

Select One:

Artist

General Tags:

- Maurice Legendre
- art deco sculpture
- Daum Sculpture