Description

This set of four French Art Deco arm chairs was designed and made by Andre Sornay (1902 - 2000) in Lyon, France. The chairs are constructed of solid mahogany with the arms connected to the front and rear legs with an exposed finger joint. The back splat is ribbon mahogany veneer. Two chrome rods, placed at the rear, hold the chair together. The rod heads and screws are disguised brass with "Ponte d'Ivory" covers. The upholstery is brown leather and is fastened to the back splat with "Ponte d'Ivory" covers. Each chair is 37" high x 20 ½" deep and 20 ½" wide. All are in excellent vintage condition.
