Reference:

MPD-003928

Description

Outstanding mid century modern Danish teak executive. This piece is one of the finest of it's kind. The atypically large desk is loaded with features. The ample size makes this practical for use in a commercial or residential setting. Lots of storage with six drawers on the front side and a bookcase/cabinet on the back side. Two sliding doors glide across the bookcase providing private storage on an otherwise public view. This piece doubles as a partner's desk. A table top extends from the back side of the desk to act as a work surface for a secretary or partner. Two more secretary table tops extend from above the top drawers on the front side of the desk. Superior practicality coupled with exceptional styling. This is the best of the best when it comes to vintage Scandinavian desks.
