Description

This is a Daum Crystal figure by artist Sylvie Roubes titled "Morphee." The piece depicts a nude female lying on her stomach with her legs stretched out in front of her. Her right leg is comfortably bent and tucked under her left. Her forehead rests on crossed arms. The crystal ranges from a light yellow to amber to light blue gradually changing from head to toe. Her hip and leg have a polished shine that accentuate the long, lean lines of her body. The back of her thighs are etched with a treble clef and "Roubes," while her spine is etched with "Daum France." The piece is in excellent condition with no damage of any kind. It measures approximately 5" from head to hips, 6" from legs to hips, and .5" thick at the hips.
