

Late 19th Century French Country -bakers-table Marble Top

Reference:

MPD-005653

Description

This fantastic example of late 19th century Provincial French furniture is as utilitarian as it is attractive. The intricate cabriole legs rendered in iron are connected by strapping in the same material supporting the white marble top.

Because of the narrow depth and considerable length of this piece, it may be used in many settings including as a console or sofa table.
