Sleeping Fish Story Portrait

Description
Sleeping Fish.
Apart from the humour of the idea of a fish sleeping like a human, it is the colours that are important. I do like a picture where the colours are emotive and satisfying. Whenever you look at this image you eye is drawn from one space to the next and the combination of juxtaposed colours resonate.
To read this piece read from left to right, top to bottom the fish tosses and turns, dreams, enters REM, then deep sleep and then wakes at the last sq.
