Salvador Dali Sculpture -Surrealistic Angel-

Reference:

MPD-007868
Description
Limited edition bronze of a winged figure, it's head in the form of a triangular star and its torso with a central void, the figure loosely draped with a shawl from the waist down. The sculpture is finished with rich black patina and stands on a cubic gilded frame. Signed Dali, numbered 1476 / 1500.

Dali saw angels as transcendently pure creatures that served as communicators between the artist and God. Further religious connotations can be read in the triangular head, which represented the triad of Dali’s homes in Figueras, Pubol and Port Lligat, as well as the deep rooted influence of the Holy Trinity.
