Homage to Fashion Sculpture by Salvador Dali

Reference:

MPD-007513
Description
Bronze sculpure by Spanish artist Salvador Dali. Conceived in 1971, made for the first time in 1984

Lady's face lacks definition, allowing the admirer to imagine any face he desires. On bended knee we observe a dignified gentleman, a -dandy- paying homage to this 20th Century muse.

The rose in the lady is one of the recurring object in Dali works, the clutch actually depicts fragility when used to support the protagonist in the sculpture.

Measures : 17 inches high, the base is 9 inches x 10 inches.
