Description

This French Art Deco tapestry was cross-stitched in the 1930's. It is a true period piece.

Mythological scene depicting a beautiful maiden robed in blue is in a forest with stylized trees and sunset colors in the background accompanied by one white fawn and one black fawn. They stand on a mound of fantastic flowers and foliage. They appear frozen in time in a great aura of elegance. It is stretched on wood and is in excellent condition for its age. The colors are good and strong and so are the fibers. It is unframed at this time as we want to give the purchaser the chance to choose the best for their design taste. It is 32" high x 44" wide. There are some minor losses around the edges of the fabric.
