

Charles Dodson American Art Deco Fishing Wall Sculpture

Reference:

MPD-000239

Description

This rare and probably unique American art deco cast plaster wall sculpture representing the Fishing Industry is from the lobby of the Miami Dupont Plaza Hotel which was demolished in 2004. Charles Dodson was commissioned to design and cast nine placques for the hotel lobby representing Florida industries. We have this placque as well as ones representing "Grazing", "Commerce" and "Construction". The placque is 18 ½" in diameter.
