

American Art Deco Streamline Center Table

Reference:

MPD-000150

Description

This machine age American art deco center table was made in the 1930's. The streamline design table will grace any foyer or entry. An aluminum ring encircles the domed base while four curved supports rise from an aluminum collar to support the top. The supports are joined by two flat bands of aluminum. The base, shaft and top are Cuban mahogany. The table is 31" high and 42" in diameter.
