

French Art Deco Opalescent Glass Chandelier Birds in Winter

Reference:

MPD-000098

Description

An amazing and spectacular 1930's French Art Deco chandelier! With its nickel shaft, cones, wings and rings supporting seven illuminated opalescent glass bowls dripping icicles and three illuminated opalescent glass birds in flight, this fixture will be the centerpiece of any room. The chandelier drops 36" from the ceiling (can be shortened) and is 30" in diameter. The nickel has been replated and the fixture is rewired for American electricity.
