

Muller Freres French Art Deco Peach Glass with Roses Six Arm

Reference:

MPD-000109

Description

This 1930's chandelier was made by Muller Freres in Luneville, France. The nickel plated body has its original ceiling cap, suspension and six geometric arms. The large pale peach center glass has a three step central dome, above which is a frieze of roses. The rose décor is echoed in the six pale peach shades. The glass is signed "Muller Freres, Luneville". The chandelier, which has been replated and rewired for American electricity, drops 33" from the ceiling and is 32" in diameter.
