Gilbert Rohde American Art Deco Two Door Cabinet

Reference:

MPD-000205
Description
Gilbert Rohde (1894-1944) designed this American art deco two door chest for the Herman Miller Company in 1937. Known as a “Server Chest” from the “Formal Dining Group”, the chest is mahogany with maldou burl door fronts on a Brazilian rosewood base. The door pulls are brushed aluminum. Stenciled on the back “3435”. The chest is 36” wide x 16 ½” deep and 33” high.

Main Image:

DetailsPeriod: ART DECO
Category: Chests

Condition: Excellent

Dealer Ref: AF116

Dealer: Modernism Gallery

More InfoDesigner: Gilbert Rohde
Country of Origin: United States

Modernism Gallery

Recently Viewed

- Pair of Gilbert Rohde American Art Deco Table Lamps

