

Small American Art Deco Writing Desk and Chair

Reference:

MPD-001865

Description

A fascinating small American Art Deco writing desk with conforming chair. Made and retailed by the Modernage Furniture Company, New York ca. 1933. The trapezoid shaped desk is constructed of walnut and walnut veneers. The front of the desk pulls out and becomes a chair. There is a shelf inside the desk for storage as well as swing out drawers on each side with chromed pulls. The seat has been recovered in soft leather. The desk is 28" wide on one end and 18" wide at the rear end. The chair is 14 ¾" deep and 30" high.
