

Paul Frankl American Mid Century Dining Room Suite

Reference:

MPD-000642

Description

Paul Frankl (1886 – 1958) designed this American mid century modern design dining table and six chairs for the Johnson Furniture Company, Grand Rapids, Michigan, in 1949. The table, with its rectangular cork top and cross-slatted mahogany legs has been refinished and is in pristine condition. The table is 41 ¾" wide x 72" long (96" long when the two 12" wide leaves are added) and it is 29" high. The six chairs (two armchairs and four side chairs) have been refinished and reupholstered in a soft sage green fabric. They are variously known as "V back" or "Plunging Neckline" chairs. The armchairs are 32" high, 25" wide and 21" deep. The side chairs are 31 ½" high, 20" wide and 19" deep.

Main Image:

DetailsPeriod: MID-CENTURY MODERN
Category: Dining Suites

Condition: Excellent

Dealer Ref: MD043

- Height: 29
- Length : 96
- Width: 41 ¾

Dealer: Modernism Gallery

More InfoDesigner: Paul Frankl
Country of Origin: United States
Material/techniques: Cork

MODERNISM GALLERY
French & American Art Deco

Modernism Gallery