Description
Paul Frankl (1886 - 1958) designed this eight foot long dining table in 1949 for the Johnson Furniture Company, Grand Rapids, Michigan. The table top of cork veneers sits on two "Y" shaped bases of sandblasted wormy chestnut. The table is model # 2253 ½ in the company literature and is 29" high, 40" wide and 96" long. It is in excellent condition and will be equally comfortable as a dining table or conference table.
