Kurt Versen Cork and Copper American Art Deco Table Lamp

Reference:

MPD-000179
Description
This rare table lamp was designed by Kurt Versen (1901 – 1942) for the Kurt Versen Company in 1935. The base and shade are covered in cork and the shaft and support are in polished copper. The shade swings out from the shaft to provide a wider range of light on the surface. The lamp is 16 ½” high, 10 wide and 18” long. It is in excellent original condition with only the copper polished. The lamp has been rewired.
