

French Art Deco Round Jaz Clock In Brass

Reference:

MPD-000281

Description

A fine French art deco table clock by the Compagnie Industrielle de Macanique Horelogere which used the trademark "JAZ" from 1919 to 1941. This clock is from a line of deco clocks that the company introduced in 1934. The circular brass clock frame encloses the floating numerals around a gold ground. The clock body swivels horizontally. The clock is 5-1/2" high and 4-1/2" wide. The clock is marked "JAZ" on the front and back and is also marked on the back "modele depose, Made in France".
