Description
Gilbert Rohde designed this rare demilune clock for the Herman Miller Clock Company in Zeeland, Michigan. It is pictured in their 1935 and 1937 catalogs and is shown as # 4718. The front is maple burl with an inlaid line of Sapai wood. The dial is silver plated with lithographed numbers. The bezel around the convex glass is polished brass as are the six ball feet. The clock is in excellent condition. It is 9” wide, 2” deep and 5” high.
