

Pair American Art Deco Streamline Wall Sconces

Reference:

MPD-001473

Description

This pair of American Art Deco wall sconces are from the 1930's. The half cylinders of chromed steel are bisected by three "wings" of clear and etched glass, which transmit light. Further light is cast downward with a half circle of etched glass which is held in place by two cylindrical nut caps. Each sconce has two sockets and has been rewired. The sconces are each 9" high x 12" wide and 7" deep.
