

American Art Deco Walter Dorwin Teague Sideboard

Reference:

MPD-001990

Description

Walter Dorwin Teague (1883-1960) designed this sideboard circa 1935. It was manufactured by the Hastings Table Company of Grand Rapids, Michigan. The side board has book matched Paldao burl exterior and rests on an indented chrome steel base. The central handles match the base. The two doors open to reveal two shelves on the right and four drawers on the left, the top drawer has a sliding felt lined box to hold silverware. The left hand corner is hinged to rotate out and show four shelves for glassware and two areas for bottles. The sideboard is 68" wide, 18" deep, and 38" high.
