

Art Deco Nudes Amid Ferns Tapestry

Reference:

MPD-000265

Description

This exciting original art deco hand woven tapestry is from the 1920's and was created in Eastern Europe for the French market. The crewel work weaving shows two nude maidens on a black background. Their hair swirls and flows in red and blond as they dance about a fern with green stem and red leaves. The colors are bright and true and the tapestry is in great condition. It is 76" high x 38" wide.

Main Image:

DetailsPeriod: ART DECO
Category: Tapestries

Condition: Great

Dealer Ref: R13

Dealer: Modernism Gallery

More InfoMaterial/techniques: crewel

MODERNISM GALLERY
French & American Art Deco

Modernism Gallery

