French Art Deco Skyscraper Chandelier / Lamp

Description
This is a totally unique 1920s French Art Deco Skyscraper ceiling light, which also works well as a table lamp.
True to the Art Deco Style influenced by Skyscrapers, this is a large, impressive piece and will be the talking point of any interior it graces.
The central geometric, frosted glass shade is deeply contrasted against the three spherical frosted glass shades which surround it.
All the glass elements are held in place by the nickel plated fitting with stylised flowers which also hid the wiring. There is a hanging hook built in which folds flat if you wanted to use as a table lamp - what a centrepiece!
This came to me directly from a chateau which was undergoing renovation, and the owner tells me that they remember their grandfather telling them he had it made for the entrance hall. You will never see another one, this is totally unique.
