Riedel Austria Hand-Blown Curled Decanter

Reference:

MPD-007373
Description
Handblown Riedel Glass decanter with the original sticker. The curls in the handblown decanter create multiple oxygen pockets which aerate the wine at a much faster rate than a standard decanter and enables the bouquet and flavor of the wine to enhance as the liquid passes through the decanter toward the opening where it can be poured into a glass.
Made in Austria and signed on the base
