Description
Bookmatched European Burl Walnut cellarette. This cabinet is made of a gorgeous bookmatched European Burl Walnut on the cabinet's exterior top and door fronts. The cabinet's exterior sides are huge sweeping panels of Crown Cut European Walnut Curl in a fishbone pattern. The interior of the cabinet is veneered in a ribbon figured Ayan Curl (an exotic form of Mahogany).

The exterior is refinished in our luxe closed-grain high gloss Italian polyester finish and the interior in a semi-gloss finish. We have standardized for the last several years on a very high quality and high-end finishing product from Italy - it is extremely hard and resilient to bumps, bruises and scratches and is totally water and alcohol impervious. It is expensive but this is Deco-Dence's hallmark ... producing pieces that not only look fabulous today and can be used with peace of mind but that will retain their drop-dead gorgeous looks for decades to come with just a little TLC and minimal effort.

In the top bar service area the bottom mirror is the original reverse painted gold stripped mirror in beautiful original condition. All metal hardware was removed, hand polished and re-installed. The cabinet has its original label on its back that reflects the cabinet maker's name, Sureline of London, and also the name of the person or place that the cabinet was to be delivered originally, which is interesting. The original chromium juicer and a set of martini picks complement the cabinet.

The bottom storage area features a plate glass mirror back with a plate glass shelf for barware. Infinitely variable remote controlled LED lighting has been added to enhance the display characteristics. The bottom storage area provides ample storage for all your favorite liquors.

This beautful vintage Art Deco cocktail cabinet has been completely hand stripped and refinished by our artisans to an exceptionally high level of quality using as mentioned our world-class Italian polyester finish.
