

Huge Art Deco Architectural Terracotta Frieze 2 Stories High

Reference:

MPD-000832

Description

This is a very elegant Art Deco terracotta architectural frieze. Pale gold with black background creates great contrast with wonderful figural figures including griffons and gargoyles. It is 2 stories high and has been salvaged from an older building. The panel is made up of many pieces. We use small tabs to hold it in place for demonstration purposes only. There are minor losses or damage due to the removal but the piece will assemble nicely with only minor restoration if you desire. The patina has been created naturally since the 1930s. The piece measures 176 inches tall and is 56 inches wide. The depth has been cut down to 2.5 inches to allow for ease of a retro-fit installation.
