Description

Edna Hibel was educated at the Boston Museum School of Fine Arts, from 1935-1939. In 1942, she was honored with the Sturtevant Traveling Fellowship to Mexico. With both lithographs on paper and on other materials, she often segments her editions of lithographs by colors, papers or the use of gold. She organized the Edna Hibel Museum of Art, in Jupiter Florida to display and promote her art. Edna Hibel passed away in December 2014 at the age of 98. This etching is a beautiful representation of her work. It measures 24.5x18in. It's signed on the bottom right with the edition number on the bottom left. Has beautiful pieces of gold on it as well.
