Description

This is a monumental drawing (78 in x 42 in.) by famous artist David Schofield, titled "Alhambra Interior" . signed lower right "Davis Schofield 2017" and number lower left " A. P first editon"

This drawing include the certificate of authentication (COA)

Many of the drawings are very large and all are ambitious, highly detailed, distinctly original and immediately fascinating: they invite close examination for their intense and elaborate intricacy. Each very large drawing can take at least several hundred hours to complete. David uses pen and ink on snowflake parchment with a Koh-i-Noor Rapidograph size 00 point that he files so that it pierces the surface of the parchment which allows the ink to be absorbed. At first the drawings seem to be faithfully-detailed renderings of the scene; a closer look reveals what David calls "secondary elements":

litter, graffiti, discarded furniture, and visual puns, as well as personal references to his family and friends or to his travels or to something he has read.
