Hilda Rindom Watercolor Painting

Reference:

MPD-004489
Description
Hilda Rindom was born in Cuba from European parents who immigrated to Cuba and then later moved to the U.S. She has attended some of the finest art schools, but is mostly self taught. Her work has been selected many times to be exhibited in fine art galleries and museums. She prefers to do works in a Impressionistic style, especially work she calls "art with humor". She loves color so it is always emphasized in her paintings. Rindom's works have been published in five different countries: France, Holland, Germany, Sweden and the United States.

This beautiful watercolor is in great condition and measures 22.5x30.
