

Paris Match Magazines Leather Bound 16 Volumes 1956-1959

Reference:

MPD-000809

Description

This is a 16 volume leather bound set of "Paris March" magazine from France, 1956 through 1958. These volumes are full of unusual and interesting topics from the late 1950's written in French. A popular news and current-events magazine aimed at the middle class, Paris Match features picture stories on public affairs, profiles and interviews of government officials and assorted celebrities, and stories on entertainment, fashion, and consumer products. In its early decades it was often compared to the American magazine Life (1936-72), which it far outlived. Each book is bound in green leather with part cloth. Each volume is large at 14 inches tall and 11 inches deep...
