Description

Vintage Lucite Table Lamp- Stacked Rectangles

Intricate Vintage Lucite table lamp made of stacked rectangular lucite pieces. Each rectangle is slightly offset and if viewed from above gives an octagonal appearance to the shape of the lamp. There is a slight yellowing to the lucite due to age, however, with a better cleaning, this may clear up a little. Light functions and the cord is in good condition. Lamp Measures 19" Height to the bulb socket and the base is 6" x 6". An interesting piece for a modernist home.
