

Large Architectural Art Deco Terracotta Frieze In Blue

Reference:

MPD-000833

Description

This is an Art Deco architectural frieze made from fired and glazed cream colored terracotta. It has been salvaged from an older building. There are minor losses or damage due to the removal but the piece will assemble nicely with only minor restoration if you desire. There are expected irregularities to the finish due to age and exposure. The panel is made up of many pieces. We have placed them on top of one another for demonstration purposes only. When you properly install and grout this frieze, it will fit together correctly. The piece measures 112 wide by 51 inches tall and is 5.5 inches thick,
