

American Art Deco Gilbert Rohde Dresser 1933 Worlds Fair

Reference:

MPD-000745

Description

One number 3317 dresser from the Modern Bedroom Group designed in 1933 by Gilbert Rohde (1894 - 1944) for the Herman Miller Furniture Company, Zeeland, Michigan. Constructed of castano wood, sequoia burl, harewood and brushed chrome fittings, the dresser is 32 ½" high, 47" wide and 20" deep. The line made its debut at the 1933 World's Fair in Chicago.

Main Image:

DetailsPeriod: ART DECO
Category: Dressers

Condition: Good Original Condition

- Height: 32 1/2"

- Length : 47

- Width: 20

Dealer: The Art Deco Mind

(386) 295-4610

More InfoDesigner: Gilbert Rohde

Country of Origin: United States

Material/techniques: Castano wood, Sequoia burl, brushed aluminum and Harewood.

The Art Deco Mind

